

UB Card Policies

Policy Definitions

UB Card (a.k.a. Card, UB Card) - the identification card issued by the University at Buffalo.

Cardholder - any individual officially issued a UB Card.

Acceptor - any department or entity accepting the UB Card for the purposes of identification.

Card Ownership - The UB Card is the property of the University at Buffalo. It must be surrendered upon request of an authorized party.

The UB Card office produces the card and maintains the database of card holders. The card office administers a set of card policies for the production and use of the card. Any and all cardholders and card acceptors must adhere to these policies for any use of the card.

Card Policies - Policies regarding the UB Card are reviewed by a committee comprised of representatives from the University at Buffalo's Administrative, Academic and Services departments. It is presided over by the Associate VP for Student Affairs. Policies are enforced by all acceptors of the card, the Card Office, and University authorities. Acceptors of the card create and enforce their own individual policies, please be aware of the policies from each of the card acceptors. You can reference the lists of official acceptors at the following web page:

<http://www.myubcard.com/ubcard/campuscash>

Card Eligibility and Issuance - All official members of the University at Buffalo Community should obtain a UB Card. Students are required to have a UB Card. The status and permissions granted to each cardholder is determined by their official University status within the Card Management system. A card will only be issued if the individual requesting the card is on file in the Card Management System. It is the responsibility of each department to administer and update the information for their employees and communicate this information to the proper University department in a timely manner.

All individuals must show official photo proof of identity issued by a government office in order to obtain a UB Card. Best forms of ID include NY State (or other state) Drivers License, NYS non-drivers id or passport.

Card Number - The 16 digit number on the face of the card is the identification number used by acceptors of the card. This is a registered number which cannot be duplicated by any other card producer nationally or internationally. Once this number has been deactivated it cannot be reactivated nor reissued. A cardholder may not possess more than one valid UB Card.

Identification - The UB Card is required for identification at the University at Buffalo. It must be presented upon request of any Law enforcement or security personnel or authorized University personnel.

Card Platform - The UB Card is a convenience platform for the University at Buffalo. Although maintained by the UB card office, there are many other entities, which use the card platform. Each of the entities will have their own regulations for the use of this card within their area of authority. No entity using this card may violate any of the University regulations in the use of this card. It is your responsibility to know the policies from each of the services you use.

Card Acceptors - The UB Card is a service platform for use at the University at Buffalo. Any Official University entity may use the card for the purposes of identification for any official service offered. Any entity accepting the card should contact the card office for information pertaining to the card itself and for Official University policies regarding the card. No individual entity may use the card for any commercial purpose without the permission of the UB Card office.

Alterations & Damage - The card may not be altered in any way. No individual or entity may alter the card for any reason. Holes may not be punched nor cut in the card. No stickers may be attached to the card. The card may not be re-encoded. The cardholder and acceptor may be held responsible for any damage caused to equipment by an altered card. Replacements for altered cards will be reissued at the cardholder's expense. This fee will not be waived. It is the cardholder's responsibility to keep the card in a manner to prevent damage.

Fees - There is an initial card cost and a replacement cost. A schedule of costs associated with the card is attached.

Defects & Wear - Cards deemed by a card office employee to be defective will be replaced free of charge. Cards deemed to be unusable due to normal excessive wear will be replaced free of charge. Only designated card office employees may make the determination of a card's condition.

Lost Cards - Lost or stolen UB Cards should be reported to the office as soon as possible. You may be held responsible by any of the agencies using the card until it is properly deactivated. Due to the nature of the card, all cards called in or sent in to the card office are deactivated immediately. Once deactivated the card must be reissued with a new ISO. If a card is returned to the card office prior to a replacement being issues, a replacement will be issued with a new ISO number at no charge. Lost cards may be reported locally at 645-6344 or long distance at 1-800-LOST UB1. (1-800-567-8821).

Confiscation - The UB Card issued to a cardholder is theirs exclusively. Due to the nature of the card, it is not transferable for any reason. If a person tries to use a card that is not their own, the card must be confiscated and cut on sight. Authorities may also be summoned. Replacing a confiscated card has a fee that cannot be waived. A schedule of costs associated with the card is attached.

Stolen Cards - Lost or stolen UB Cards should be reported to the office as soon as possible. You may be held responsible by any of the agencies using this card until it is properly deactivated. Stolen cards may be reported locally at 645-6344 or long distance at 1-800-LOST UB 1 (1-800-567-8821) for deactivation.

Misuse of Cards - Any misuse or illegal acts involving a UB Card will be investigated. The card office will prosecute any violators of card policy or law pertaining to the card and the services attached to it.

Policy Changes - Changes in policies regarding UB Cards will be posted in the UB Card offices. The offices are located in 101 UB Commons on the North (Amherst Campus) and 104 Harriman Hall on the South (Main Street) Campus. The card policies and official acceptors are posted and updated on the UB Card website at <http://www.myubcard.com>

Schedule of Fees

Initial (first) card $20.00

Replacement Cards $20.00

Replacement with New Photo - $25.00

Damaged Reprint $10.00

Damaged Reprint with New photo - $20.00

Confiscated $25.00

Defective Cards - no charge

Status Changes - no charge

Name Change - no charge