MUNCHIE MACHINE KICKS-OFF FINALS WEEK

Campus Dining & Shops to provide students with complimentary snacks and beverages during Exams

(Buffalo, NY) – Campus Dining and Shops’ Munchie Machine will be hitting UB roads once again this year during Finals week; Tuesday, May 1 – Friday, May 4. This annual event, now in its sixth year, provides students free assorted snacks, fruit, bakery items and beverages as an evening study break.

The Munchie Machine will make four stops along the delivery route near the residential dining centers; Richmond, Red Jacket, Governors, and Main Street Market. Approximate delivery times are as follows:

6:15 pm	Goodyear Hall, Bus Stop Loop
7:00 pm	Governors, Lehman Hall Entrance
8:15 pm	Porter / Fargo Loop, Ellicott
8:45 pm	Richmond / Red Jacket Loop, Ellicott

Residents at the Creekside, Flint, Hadley, and South Lake Village apartment will also be able to enjoy complimentary goodies at their respective Community building.

“We really enjoy doing this event,” said Mitch Green, executive director of Campus Dining and Shops. “It’s a way for us to say “thank you” to the students and it offers them a little distraction from their studying,” he added. Anita Hathaway, registered dietician for Campus Dining and Shops and organizer of the Munchie Machine, expects a great turn out as usual. “Each day we see more and more students coming out to the truck – they really appreciate it and it’s a lot of fun for the students and our staff.”
